

Directory of the Boroughs of Hull, York etc

William White

1867

MALTON (NEW) is a well built market town, pleasantly seated on the western banks of the river Derwent, which is here crossed by a handsome stone bridge of three arches, connecting the town with Norton; and also by a wooden bridge built in 1845, leading to the Railway Station. The town stands on a gentle eminence, 21 miles N.E. of York, and S.W. of Scarborough (by rails), and 214 miles N. by W. of London. It comprises the parishes of St. Leonard and St. Michael, and their population in 1861 was 3,787. The Parliamentary Reform and Boundary Acts, of 1832, added the suburban parishes of Norton and Old Malton to the borough, the former containing 2983, and the latter 1302 inhabitants in 1861; thus swelling the total population of the borough, in that year, to 8072 souls. The market is held every Saturday; and here are five annual fairs – viz., during the week before Palm Sunday on the Saturday before Whit-Sunday, the Saturday before July 12th, on October 11th, and on the Saturday before November 23rd. Gas Works were constructed here in 1832. In 1845, a neat Corn Exchange, was erected in Yorkersgate, at the expense of Earl Fitzwilliam. Here is also a Subscription News Room and Literary Institute. Petty Sessions are held every alternate Saturday, in the Town-hall, a plain building, in the Market place; and Wm. Simpson, Esq., is clerk to the magistrates. The Lock-up is in the Cattle market, and Mr. Geo. Gregory is the police superintendent. A County Court is held once a month, in the Town Hall, for a district comprising about 100 parishes and townships. Wm. Raines, Esq., is judge; Wm. R. Wilson, Esq., registrar; Chas. Smith, Esq., high bailiff; and Mr. Thos. Botterill, assistant bailiff. The Workhouse, is a plain brick building, in Low street, and the Union comprises 65 parishes and townships. Mr. Saml. Walker is union clerk and superintendent registrar; and Mr. Thomas Botterill is registrar of births, deaths, and marriages; Mr. John Marshall, assistant overseer and rate collector, George Smith, Thomas Watson and James Stabler, relieving officers; Wm. Colley, Esq., surgeon; and Mr. Wm. J. and Mrs. Ellen Smith, master and Matron. The office of the Local Board of Health is at the Town Hall. Mr. Saml. Walker is clerk, and Mr. Saml. Hepworth, surveyor. St. Michael's Church, in the Market place, is a large Anglo Norman structure, consisting of a nave and aisles and clerestory, a chancel and a tower. It was thoroughly restored in 1858, and the chancel rebuilt. The fine organ has recently been much enlarged and improved, and many of the windows have been enriched with beautiful stained glass. The perpetual curacy, valued at £195, is in the patronage of Earl Fitzwilliam, and incumbency of the Rev. George Arthur Firth, B.A., who has a neat residence. St. Leonard's Church occupies an elevated site, and comprise a nave with north aisle, a large chancel with north aisle, and a western tower containing eight bells and a set of chimes. It was restored in 1856, and is of mingled early Norman and Early English architecture. The perpetual curacy, valued at £195, is in the patronage of Earl Fitzwilliam, and incumbency of the Rev. Robt. Wm. Elliott, M.A. The Cemetery, on the north-west side of the town, was formed in 1859, and contains two neat mortuary chapels. The Roman Catholic Chapel is a neat building erected in 1841, by the Rev. R. Garstang. The Rev. Thomas Middlehurst is the current priest. The Unitarians, Friends, Baptists, Wesleyans, Independents, and Primitive Methodists, have chapels here. There are also National, Infant, and British Schools. The Camulodunum Lodge of Freemasons (No. 660) was established in 1856, and meets on the first and third Tuesdays in each month.
